Presentations – Brandywine – Steve Waddell

Mr. Waddell introduced himself as Senior Vice President for Brandywine Global. He informed the Retirement Board that he is Mike Purcell's replacement. He stated the firm is based in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and manages approximately 30.4 Billion dollars in assets.

Mr. Waddell reviewed the Organizational Structure and stated that Brandywine Global is a focused, cohesive and agile team. Mr. Waddell stated Brandywine Global seeks returns in the portfolio by investing in bonds with the highest real yields, actively managing currency exposures in order to protect principal and enhance returns and controlling risk by purchasing undervalued securities. Mr. Waddell reviewed Brandywine Global's investment goals, which include providing long-term returns in excess of the rate of inflation and providing capital preservation through focus on undervalued securities.

Mr. Waddell stated that since inception Brandywine Global is up 6.16%. He is confident moving through 2010 and into 2011 that Brandywine Global will produce positive returns.
